THE Chinese gambling manis has a great deal to answer for, and perhaps, among other things, for most of the cases of robbery committed by servents or with their connivance, which seem to be so alarmingly without a more or less serious case of this kind being reported. HAROLD Dowsen, formerly agent for the China and Japan Telephone Co. here, and who has been confined for several months in Victoria Gaol as a debtor, was arrested on leaving prison and brought before Mr Pollock in the Police Court on a charge of embezzlement and theft at the instance the Telephone Co. The charge was that the prisoner embezzled and stole a sum $75 on 3rd November, 1887, and further sums of $25.40 on 31st December 1887, ocean postage from Germany to Australia aud $40 on $1st March 1888, all of which he had received on account of his employers. The prisoner admitted the charge. Mr Hastings, of Mesers Wotton and Deacon's office, who appeared for the prosucution, said he presumed that as the prisoner had pleaded guilty, his Worship would commit the case for trial. Mr Pollock asked if there was any particular reason why the case should be sent to the Supreme Court. Mr Hastings replied that there was not, and that if his Worship had decided to deal with the case, the prosecution had objection. He had been requested by the agent of the Telephone Co. to state that that could be booked was secured beforeprevious to this the company had no reason to doubt Dowson's honesty in any way, and that his discharge had arisen from his having unfortunately given way to drink and possibly not being quite in a fit state to regulate his actions at the time. This might possibly weigh with his Worship in dealing out punishment. His Worship said the prisoner might think himself lucky in this case that the prosecution did not press the charge against him. It was very serious offence, and the sentence would be one of six months' hard labour.

Amonder the numerous postal anomalies which Mr Henniker Heaton intenda bring under the notice of the House Commons the following are the most striking :- In Austria 120 letters can be posted for £1 to England; in England only 98 letters can be justed to Austria for the same money. The letter postage from France to New Caledonia is 21d , from England to New Unledonia a letter costs od. whilst the letter postage to Australia by the same route, 1,000 miles nearer England, is 6d. By the all-sea rente from England Australia the letter postage is 4d.; but the or New Guinea is less than 21d. per letter. The French and German post-offices in Shanghai charge only 21d. for letters to England, or half the rate of the English Post Office, the former being in consequence patronised by the British Government officials at Shanghai.

AMY SHERWIN'S COMPANY AT THE

THEATRE ROYAL At the Theatre Royal on Saturday evenng the audience was perhaps the largest that the Company have had here, which saying a great dea', considering the excellent houses they have had since they commanced their season here. Every place hand, and extra souts had to be provided. H. E. the Governor and Lady des Vooux were again present, and the entertainment was under the immediate patronage of Col. Forbes Robertson and the Officers of the Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders. The programme was a thoroughly popular one, and was greatly enjoyed. begin with, there was the usual short concert, which is always sure to be welcome whatever may follow, and remainder of the evening was devoted to Donizetti's charming little 'The Daughter of the Regiment,' in the production of which the company got very valuable assistance from Mr John J. Hazeland and some of the members of the Band of the Highlanders. The opera was altogether a most enjoyable performance. Mr Gorlitz appounces that it will be repeated on Thursday evening, and we have no doubt that not only those who were disappointed in securing seats for Saturday night, but many who were present then, will avail themselves of the second opportunity for enjoying the opera.
